

Planning Applications

Willington Parish Council receives a copy of all local planning applications, both outline and full, and a copy of all decisions that are subsequently made by South Derbyshire District Council. In some instances, decisions are made by other parties including Derbyshire County Council, the Secretary of State or the Planning Inspectorate.

Details of planning applications (for example proposed new dwellings and developments, building extensions, conservatories, changes of use, etc) can be viewed at the offices of South Derbyshire District Council:

Telephone: (01283) 595795

Alternatively they may also be viewed online at <http://sddc.planning-proposals.co.uk/> Comments can also be made online to the planning authority about current applications.

Appeals and 'called in' applications may be dealt with by others, such as the proposed former Power Station development, Burnaston Cross, etc.

Appeals can be searched online at: <http://www.planningportal.gov.uk>
